person for the National Security Council late Monday that the with Russia will take on January 10. Russian deputy foreign minister Sergei Ryabkov on Tuesday confirmed the date and said that they will take place in Geneva, where US resident Joe Biden and is Russian counterpart Vladimir Putin met for their first summit in June.

The Kremlin has grown increasingly insistent that the West and NATO are encroaching dangerously close to Russia's borders. Moscow earlier this month presented the West with sweeping security demands, saying NATO must not admit new members and seeking to bar the United States from establishing new bases in former Soviet republics.

France closes mosque after unacceptable preaching

Agence France-Presse · Paris

FRANCE has ordered the closure of a mosque in the north of the country because of the radical nature of its imam's preaching, regional authorities said on Tuesday.

The mosque in Beauvais, a town of 50,000 people some 100 kilometres north of Paris, will remain shut for six months, according to the prefecture of the Oise region where Beauvais is located.

It said the sermons there incite hatred, violence and defend jihad.

The move comes two weeks after interior minister Gerald Darmanin said he had triggered the procedure to close the site because the imam there 'is targeting Christians, homosexuals and Jews' in his sermons. He said, the minister said, was unacceptable.

Local authorities were legally bound to launch a 15-day period of information-gathering before taking action, but said on Tuesday that the mosque would now be shut within two days.

Local daily Courier Picard reported this month that the mosque's imam was a recent convert to Islam.
