

NEWAGE

Before beginning the mad march, Farid Khan told journalists that they did not want any kind of violence.

'We want a good democratic structure return in the country. The main aspiration was democratic state system. But, today this democratic process is being hindered due to various reasons, he said.

'The country's authoritarian structure is becoming complex and violent by day. As a conscious and educated citizen, it is my responsibility to take part in the movement and make the people voice their concerns while respecting the country's democracy and freedom', he added.
